Covid update

I will no longer be including the Covid numbers in my newsletter. We have been at 0 for many weeks. If we should begin getting cases again, I will provide an update, as well as send that classroom an email. Thank you for your support during these last two years. It has been tough, but we are so happy and proud of the low numbers we have had.

Registration for 2022-23 School Year**

Registration for next year is going on now!! This year you will register online at our St. Edward School website.
